

Bletchingley Conservation and Historical Society

New Publications

The Historical Society holds a small library of publications for the benefit of members (only). Many of these items can also be obtained through local libraries, good bookshops and online.

This section gives information about recent additions to our library.

- In the Shadow of the Great War: Surrey 1914 – 1922. Edited by Kirsty Bennett, Imogen Middleton, Michael Page and Juliet Warren. Published 2019; ISBN 978 0 7509 9306 7

Published as a result of Surrey Heritage's Project Surrey in the Great War: A County Remembers this book "... chronicles the mobilisation of Surrey men, the training of foreign troops in the county, objection to military service, defence against invasion, voluntary work and fundraising, the experiences of women and children, shortages, industrial supply to the armed forces and the commemoration of Surrey's dead."

- Surrey Archaeological Collections – Volume 103, 2021

The Surrey Archaeological Society regularly publishes Articles and Reviews throughout the year. These bound volumes bring them together.

This volume includes an in-depth article about the Analytical Survey of Gravelly Hill, Caterham and Bletchingley including Old Park Wood, North Park, War Coppice and Fosterdown Fort.

- Surrey Archaeological Collections – Volume 104, 2022

The Surrey Archaeological Society regularly publishes Articles and Reviews throughout the year. These bound volumes bring them together.

This volume includes a report (with maps and photograph) on the archaeological excavation of North Park Quarry.

- Surrey Archaeological Society – Surrey's Past, Issue 491

- Brewer Street Farm: A Brief History 1921 – 2022 by Christopher French

A personal history of the French family at Brewer Street